Open House, Bazaar Planned

Angels Unaware - A Chance for the Retarded

In observance of National Retarded Children's Week, the Angels Unaware Center of El Cajon is staging an open house and bazaar next week at the school, 1374 Lexington, El Cajon.

Angels Unaware, which is the East County Chapter of the San Diego Association for Retarded Children, is headed by president Arthur Thomas, Lemon Grove resident, and principal of Monterey Heights Elementary School.

Also connected with the project is Mrs. Norman W. Merrill, 1671 Bakersfield st., Lemon Grove, a volunteer helper since 1962 and secretary for the organization since 1965.

With the open house and bazaar activities, Angels Unaware will be giving the public the opportunity to see their facilities and get more acquainted with the program which is offered to handicapped children in this area.

In conjunction with the open house, the Cosmo Crafts Club of San Diego is sponsoring a bazaar for the center. Open house and bazaar hours will be 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, of next week and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. Tours of the center will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. through 1:30 p.m., beginning each hour.

Various clubs and individuals will be contributing items to be sold at the bazaar, making it an excellent place for visitors to pick up some holiday gifts, as well as, paintings and antiques. Many baked goods will also be offered.

"We are combining two things with the open house and bazaar," explained Mrs. Charlotte E. Hale, director of the Angels Unaware Center in El Cajon. "We want to give the public a chance to come in and see our program, and also raise funds for the many projects we have. Many people often pass by the center and never stop in to see the operation. Maybe this will encourage a few people to come in and see what is being done for the mentally retarded children of our area."

In evaluating the effectiveness of the center, president Thomas recently stated in the Center's newsletter:

"As I mingle and visit with the pupils at the Center, their friendliness and obvious happiness impresses me deeply. If Angels Unaware has a lot of meaning for us, think what it means to them and how sad it would be if there were no such place."

This is president Thomas's first year in office at the center. He has been connected with the project for three years. The local elementary school principal resides at 7112 Central ave., Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Merrill indicated that this would be the third year for the open house and bazaar at the center, with the activity proving to be a tremendous success.

Mrs. Grant Thiem, publicity chairman for Angels Unaware, stressed the fact that many citizens would not be aware of the school and how it aids the community, if it were not for the educational value of the open house, and the fund-raising help provided by the out-side sponsored bazaars. Angels Unaware is a non-profit, non-sectarian, day training center for retarded children in the east county area, regardless of race, color, creed, or degree of disability, for whom there is no provision in the public school system.

The center has progressed from its early start in 1959 under the El Cajon Woman's Club. In 1960, a board of directors was formed and the program was merged with the San Diego County Assn. for Retarded Children. The initial enrollment of six children at the center has now been increased to 50, with the age limit starting at 3 years and up. The center has been housed in six different temporary quarters for four years, before moving into its present site in March of 1963. The total land now owned by the chapter is one and a half acres, with three buildings containing 8,500 square feet of floor space.

The staff at the center consists of seven instructors, along with director, Mrs. Hale, and secretary, Mrs. Merrill.

The program is planned to give retarded children the opportunities afforded all children. The instruction stresses concept of learning to work and play together, with the students learning self-care, safety habits, grooming, motor coordination, social adjustment, use of tools, household skills, arts and crafts and pre-vocational training.

Hospital Bond Issue Should Be Voted Down

Voters should reject the eight million dollar bond issue being engineered by directors of the Grossmont Hospital district. The election is scheduled for November 28 for paying for a new 10-story wing.

The election, if successful, will add eight million dollars to the tax burden already besetting property owners of the district.

Rejection should come for several reasons — but the main reason is the tax cost.

The election is being proposed on the basis that the crisis at Grossmont Hospital "must be ended."

If there is a "crisis" at Grossmont, it is not greater than the crisis at other hospitals, according to Homer Streich, one of the hospital's directors.

He suggests that the "crisis" is among nursing personnel rather than in facilities. Nor is there a shortage of doctors. He recalls that there were 45 doctors on the staff in 1955 when the hospital opened. Today there are 681 doctors, of which 200 are active. Doctors are finding it convenient to use the hospital as a case work-up office, if Streich's philosophy is right.

Streich says he is not opposed to larger hospitals as much as he is concerned for district taxpayers — as well he might be for taxes have become so oppressive that revolt is possible.

Streich's concern for district taxpayers is a proper concern. Someone has to be aware of the fact that Mercy and Sharp hospitals are not supported by property owners and they are able to give service comparable to Grossmont at equal or less cost. It has always seemed ridiculous that district homeowners who pay the bond bill for Grossmont also pay the same rate for its use that they would pay at Sharp or Mercy which they do not support with their tax dollars. Several years ago, following a strong editorial attack by this newspaper on this policy, directors reduced the rate for district residents $2 a day. Outsiders were charged full rate. About a year ago this benefit was dropped. And directors are now asking that residents take on the newly proposed $8 million responsibility. If voters approve, it will indicate that they are as stupid as the directors opined when they decided to let property owners buy more office space for doctors from all over the county.

Incidentally, one of the directors is Dr. William Soldman, former chief of Grossmont staff. It has been this newspaper's opinion since the hospital has been built with property-owners money, that a conflict of interest results when a doctor serves as a director. The idea is that directors work for the general public. Directors should not interfere in the art and science of medicine. Theoretically, doctors do not interfere in the hospital's financing or administrative processes.

Directors, back in 1960, announced that the next expansion would be a hospital unit near Campo-Palm, in Spring Valley, to give better service to supporters of the hospital in the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley areas. But no plans now exist for such an expansion. State and federal leaders claim that freeway systems reduce the travel time to one, big hospital to the point where branches are no longer necessary. This idea is a wrong one, but government wants bigger facilities, presumably for easier control.

Based on this philosophy, Grossmont should enlarge. But with Medicare, Medical, and military care creating an overload if such exists, state and federal government should carry the cost burden — not homeowners.

In quick review, Grossmont was built for $2 million dollars. It opened in 1955 with 110 beds. State and federal money (Hill-Burton Act funds) supplied two-thirds. A bond issue of $800,000 was voted by district voters.

In 1960, another 100 beds were added. Hill-Burton Act funds paid two thirds. The rest came from funds of the previous bond issue. This doubled the capacity but didn't increase the service facilities. So a million dollar powerhouse and a $250,000 administration facility was ordered and are nearing completion. They are being paid for out of the capital outlay fund and from taxes exacted during the past three years.

The hospital now is capable of caring for 12,000 emergency cases, and 12,000 surgical-medical cases a year. The hospital delivers 2,000 babies a year.

The proposed 10-story wing will place the burden of cost

S.V. Resident, Grove Merchant Dies Sun. in Gyroplane Mishap

Robert A. Fraser, 47, of 1311 Helix st., Spring Valley, died of internal injuries Sunday after his gyroplane broke up in mid-air and crashed 200 feet to the ground at Brown Field.

Fraser's body was still strapped to the seat of the coptor-type craft, with his helmet lying about 150 feet from the impact area according to Deputy Coroner William T. Souza.

Police indicated the possibility that the two rotor blades on the craft may have become entangled. It was Fraser's second flight of the day, after he had landed to refuel. The craft crashed about five minutes after it had taken off for the second time.

The craft was home-assembled, with the pilot sitting out in the open near the front, secured only by a seat belt. It had just been improved by the Federal Aviation Agency two weeks ago.

Fraser, who was president of Fraser Construction Co. of Lemon Grove, is survived by his widow, Florence.

Rabies Clinics Set For County

The San Diego County Veterinary Medical Association announces plans for their annual public rabies vaccination clinics for dogs, to be held during the months of December and January throughout the San Diego County.

Dr. H. B. Norris, chairman of the county clinics this year, said there have been 8 rabies cases confirmed in dogs in the county and 22 confirmed cases in wild life during the year. The best protection that one can provide for his pet against this dreaded disease is to have it immunized either at their veterinarians' office or at one of the clinics.

These clinics are sponsored by the Veterinary Medical Association at a minimum cost of $1.50 per dog to make it possible for all pets to be protected. This service is provided without any expense to the taxpayer as a result of the veterinarians donating their time in the interest of public service. The vaccination is good for a two year licensing period.

All dates and locations will be announced through the news media for the scheduled clinics, or you may call the Association office to find the clinic in your area.

Bass-baritone Great Highlights Opening of Grossmont Concerts

The Grossmont Community Concert Association is presenting Kenneth Smith, bass-baritone for their first concert of the 1967-1968 series, in the Grossmont High School Auditorium, next Wednesday evening at 8:15 p.m.

Born in Leeds, England, Kenneth Smith was brought to America at the age of four and grew up in Stanford, Connecticut. He studied at the Manhattan School of Music and the New York College of Music and during World War II, served with the Air Force, flying forty missions in the South Pacific.

Resuming his musical career after the war, he soon began to make public appearances with leading orchestras and in Opera. In 1957 he made headlines for his singing of Wotan in Wagner's "Die Walkure" when it was staged at Denver's great open-air theatre at Red Rocks.

In Europe he won a special triumph with no less than ten uncut performances of "Meistersinger" with the Zurich Opera.

The attractive bass-baritone's 1967-1968 season opens with two important appearances: first the Boston Symphony under Erich Leinsdorf singing the role of Hunding in an orchestral version of Wagner's "Die Walkure", followed shortly thereafter with the Pittsburgh Symphony under William Steinberg in Berlioz' "Balthazar's Feast".

Historical Club Gains Funds Through Tickets

The Nov. 1 meeting of the Spring Valley Historical Society, held in the Spring Valley Elementary School, attracted quite a crowd, according to Mrs. Ethel Koonce, a member of the Society, who has been active in raising funds.

She said tickets had been sold to raise more money for the Society, and that as a result, three persons had won prizes at the meeting: Mrs. Gladys Thorpe won a set of Bavarian china; Mrs. Frances Peters, a table piece; and Mrs. Hope Masse, a bedside rug.

All three ladies live in Spring Valley.

Mrs. Koonce said another fund-raising project is being planned by the Society. A musical program (country music), is to be held at Grossmont College early in December. Tickets are to go on sale soon, at $1 for adults, and 50 cents for students.

Mrs. Eileen Smith, vice president of the S.V. Historical Society, asks that if anyone has three small books, by Flinn De Frates on the early history of San Diego County, to phone her at 466-2809.

'Salome' Opens Opera Season

The gold curtains will part at Civil Theatre tomorrow and Saturday when the San Diego Opera opens its 1967-68 season with the opera "Salome."

The dramatic and compelling opera in one-act by Richard Strauss, will be presented at 8 p.m. both days and in English.

"Salome" is the Strauss musical version based on Oscar Wilde's tragedy. The story is taken from the famed Biblical epic in the book of Mark in which the young beautiful princess Salome performs her dance of the seven veils. As a reward for her dance, Herod promises to grant her whatever she desires. Her wish is the head of Jokanaan (John the Baptist) be brought to her on a silver platter.

The proceeds will be used for the club's philanthropies throughout the year.

The regular meeting of the club will be held Friday, at 1:30 p.m. Diane Wallace from the San Diego Gas and Electric Company will present "The Gourmet Touch". Mrs. L. F. Vlach will be hostess chairman assisted by Mmes. William Stark, Rex Wells and Millie Bowers.

Dear Editor:

If one is ill, one goes to a doctor and if one has a toothache one goes to a dentist. If you want to know something about the Viet Nam war, I suggest you listen to Congressional Medal of Honor winner, Marine S/Sgt Jimmy Howard. He was most informative and certainly knew what he was talking about. It is too bad that some students and some faculty at Grossmont College had Mr. Darth, who believes in aiding the enemy, speak at the same time in another room. We who heard Sgt. Howard would also have liked to have heard Mr. Darth, even though we don't agree with him. One thing for sure, we wouldn't have had protest signs in the audience since we believe in extending courtesy to a speaker by being attentive and quiet.

Dear Editor,

The members of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club want to thank you sincerely for the publicity that you gave us for the Diabetes Clinic held on Saturday, Oct. 28 at the Woman's Club. It was because of the good coverage we had, that the clinic was the success it was.

Thank you again,

Pals and Gals Installation Held in Valley

At a candlelight ceremony Nov. 2, the following officers were installed for the 1967-68 term of office for the Spring Valley Senior Pals and Gals (senior citizens): Fern Milner was reelected president; Clara Bulman was reelected vice president; Rose Crum was reelected secretary; and Eva Johnson, treasurer.

Installing officer was Mrs. Ronnie Smith, vice president of the Spring Valley Historical Society. She presented each officer with a corsage. The ceremony was held in the group's regular meeting place, the Pals and Gals Clubhouse (Goodland Acres).

The group was surprised by a visit from Mrs. Maude Ogilvie, an early member, who has been ill and now in a Spring Valley rest home.

HEARTSAVER — Nurse Janet Howardson, of 7448 Daytona st., Lemon Grove, checks cardiac monitor in intensive care unit at Grossmont Hospital. Heart patients are connected to the system, with a cardiograph in each room. Nurse on duty can check on all patients, simply by pushing button that switches from one patient to the next. Hospital has five cardiac intensive care units now. Bonds would increase this number materially.

The Dimmer View

entirely on the property owner since there are no funds available through Hill-Burton (now Hill-Harris) or through Federal Works Acceleration programs.

Meanwhile, many good privately operated public hospitals with available bed space are serving Grossmont District residents at no greater cost. Among these are El Cajon Valley, Kaiser Memorial, Helix General, College Park, Villa View, and Foothills Medical Group.

This suggests that the doctors are putting the pressure on for the new hospital wing rather than public demand.

Streich, who is opposed to hanging the $8 million tab on local homeowners, adds that "I was elected by taxpayers to serve their interests in providing good hospital service at a minimum cost. We can always use more hospitals, but not at the expense of local property owners."

"If two-thirds of the total voters approve the expenditure Nov. 28 for the $8 million issue, I'll give my wholehearted support toward bringing the district the finest, most efficient facility their tax money will buy."

As it looks now, however, Streich will not have this as a problem. Based on a telephone poll, it appears presently that the issue will fail.

Valley Resident Handles Chairman Job for El Cajon Diabetes Clinic

Free tests for diabetes will be available to Lemon Grove residents this Sunday at Bantyne Elementary School, 1655 Roanoke rd., El Cajon, from 12 noon to 8 p.m.

According to Mrs. W. G. Subber of Spring Valley, the testing clinic is being sponsored by the San Diego Chapter, Diabetes Association of Southern California, and the San Diego County Medical Society. Mrs. Subber, who is immediate past-president of the local diabetes chapter, is general chairman of the diabetes detection campaign.

The detection clinic in El Cajon is one of eight that will be in operation in San Diego County on Nov. 12, the opening day of National Diabetes Week.

Dr. James J. Norton of El Cajon, a medical adviser to the diabetes association, said blood and urine tests will be given to persons over 21, with those under that age receiving only the urine test.

"We are particularly interested in testing that group of people who are more than 40 years of age, overweight, and who have a history of diabetes in the family," Norton said. "These are the persons most likely to have diabetes and not know it."

Norton will be the physician in charge of medical procedures at the El Cajon clinic and Richard Sather will direct the group of medical technologists who will assist in administering the tests.

Mrs. Harold Wessel, Health Chairman, El Cajon Valley PTA Council, and Mrs. Margaret Willmon, County Health Department, will share the responsibilities of general supervision of the clinic, and they will be aided by volunteers from the 16 units which make up the El Cajon Valley PTA Council.

Woman's Club, and from Black Mountain V.F.W. Post 8680 Auxiliary.

Persons planning to take a free diabetes test Sunday should eat a meal high in carbohydrates (sugar and starches) about two hours before visiting the detection center, Norton said.

BoA Christmas Checks to Reach 816 Residents

Nearly $84 million in Bank of America Christmas Club checks — including funds for 816 Spring Valley-Lemon Grove residents — will help bulge the Yule stockings of Californians with gifts this year.

In making the announcement Stewart E. Taylor, Manager, Sweetwater-Jamacha Branch, said the local savers will be pressing themselves with a $136,540.00 gift.

He added that the money will be distributed in November in plenty of time for the holiday shopping season.

The $83.9 million in the thrift program's 44th year of operation surpasses the record high of 1966 by $2.2 million. This year's Christmas Club checks will average $200.68, up from last year's $189.15.

All told, 200,000 Northern Californians tucked away $41.3 million in the holiday accounts with Bank of America, while Southern Californians accumulated $42.6 million in 218,000 accounts.

Most of this money will wind up under the Christmas tree on December 25, although some of the money will be used for winter vacations or paying such year-end expenses as taxes and insurance premiums.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

What is an infinitive in Spanish? An infinitive is a verb that ends in the letters AR, ER, or IR. Being infinitive these verbs are illimitable to persons or time. The infinitive form in English is created by placing the word "to" in front of the verb. In Spanish, the infinitive is formed by ending the verb in the letters AR, ER, or IR.

Two useful ER infinitives are "leer" (to read) and "vender" (to sell). These infinitives may be used with a phrase like "me gusta" (I like). An example could be "Me gusta leer." (I like to read.) or "Me gusta vender." (I like to sell.)

Verbs ending in ER may also be used with the expressions "Voy a" (I am going) and "Va a" (He is going). For example, we may say "Voy a leer." (I am going to read.) or "El va a vender." (He is going to sell.) When we use infinitives with "Voy a" and "Va a" we are implying an action which will take place in the future.

A useful IR verb is "escribir" (to write). We may say "Me gusta escribir." (I like to write.) or "Voy a escribir." (I am going to write.)

Verbs that end in AR, ER, or IR may be changed from the infinitive form to the first person form. This is done by replacing the AR, ER, or IR with the letter "o." By effecting this change we may create the words "compro" (I buy), "vendo" (I sell), and "escribo"

(I write) from the infinitives "comprar" (to buy), "vender" (to sell), and "escribir" (to write).

Review the practice phrases below. See if you can determine which words are infinitives and how they are used. Then practice saying the phrases with the two minute recording when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

IMPORTANT PHRASES

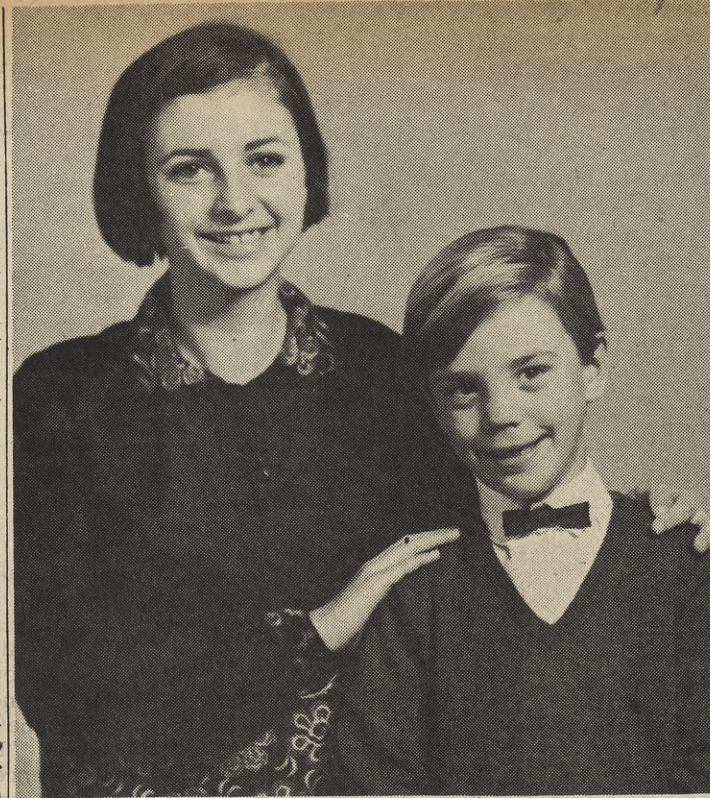

Say "Voy a leer un libro." (VOH-ee ah LEH-eh-oon LEE-broo) for "I am going to read a book."
Say "Voy a escribir una carta." (VOH-ee ah eh-scrie-BEEHR OON-nah KAH-rah) for "I am going to write a letter."

USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Va a leer?" (vah ah leh-EHR) for "Are you going to read?"
Say "Va a vender el auto?" (vah ah vehn-DEHR eh ah-oo-toh) for "Are you going to sell the car?"

OTHER PHRASES

Say "Voy a comprar una casa." (VOH-ee ah kohm-PRAHR OON-nah KAH-sah) for "I am going to buy a house."
Say "Voy a estudiar mucho." (VOH-ee ah eh-stoo-de-AHR MOO-choh) for "I am going to study a lot."

YOUTHFUL STARS — Two Spring Valley youngsters have leading parts in "Cheaper by the Dozen," a comedy scheduled by the San Diego Junior Theatre.

Jayne Relaford, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Relaford, of 10179 Madrid way, Spring Valley, and Shamus McLaughlin, 8, son of Dr. and Mrs. Dennis McLaughlin, are the actors.

Performance of "Cheaper by the Dozen" is limited to week-ends starting Friday at the Puppet Theatre in Balboa Park.

Ole Kittleson is director. Tickets may be obtained at the office of Dr. McLaughlin, 1411 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove. Information by phone may be obtained by calling 469-6152 or 463-1263.

Hospital Administrator Cites Grossmont Emergency Program

EL CAJON — Two "doctors" who never went to medical school — "Dr. Stat" and "Dr. Stillheart" — are saving lives at Grossmont Hospital, administrator Leverett Bristol told members of the El Cap Lions last night.

He said the two really are not doctors, but codenames used to call doctors who may be in the hospital at the time when some patient needs instant medical attention.

Dr. Stat responds to surgical or medical emergencies, Dr. Stillheart to cardiac cases.

"This is just part of our emergency services," Bristol said. "It has saved a number of lives. It will continue to save lives."

Emergencies that come into the hospital are normally handled by a designated doctor on call from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. weekdays, and who is on duty in the hospital overnight, he explained. A doctor is also on duty in the emergency room during the weekend.

"We had 1200 emergency cases last month alone, almost double the monthly average in 1962," Bristol added.

Bristol said the hospital's record of community service in emergency cases alone should more than justify voter approval of the $8 million bond issue Nov. 28.

The bonds would finance a 300-bed wing and expanded x-ray, surgical, laboratory, emergency and dietary facilities.

Two Here Join Sheriff's Force

Two area young men will become full-fledged sheriff's deputies November 17, when graduation ceremonies are held in the Elks Lodge in El Cajon.

The men are Thomas B. Streed, of 2535 Pergl st., Lemon Grove, and Robert L. Williams, of 8914 Frederick st., Spring Valley.

They will be among a class of 31 who will be assigned to various police services.

The sheriff is still accepting applications from young men between the ages of 21 and 33 who have completed at least high school. Starting salary is $647 a month.

Dentist to Attend College Reunion

San Francisco — Dr. Floyd H. Wilson, dentist of Spring Valley, Calif., is expected to attend the 68th annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, University of the Pacific, next Thursday and Friday, in the St. Francis Hotel.

Portions of the program of each day's meeting will be devoted to tours of the new $8.9 million building of the School of Dentistry, University of the Pacific, located at Sacramento and Webster streets in San Francisco. This school was known as the College of Physicians and Surgeons from its establishment in 1896 until it moved into the new building this year.

Heart Victims Now Get Second Chance

"Today, many people survive a first heart attack. It wasn't always so for heart attack victims," according to Steve Oberg, Heart Association Memorial chairman.

Medical science, supported by Heart Memorial gifts, has achieved great gains through new methods of diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation, he said.

Last month, 474 persons made Memorial gifts totaling $4,306.10, all allocated to research. The gifts honored 242 persons stricken by heart disease.

Packages to Vietnam Rained-out

Here's an interesting note for local residents who send packages to Vietnam.

Mrs. Eva Allen of Monterey Heights, Lemon Grove, recently reported that many of the packages sent from the States to the troops in Vietnam, never reach the right soldiers because of the monsoon weather conditions.

"During the six months of the monsoon season, the rain often makes the address on the package unrecognizable," explained Mrs. Allen. "They can't tell to whom the package is being sent."

My nephew, Paul Zarembo, advised me from Vietnam, that we should put some cellophane and tape over the name to guard against the rain," said Mrs. Allen.

Mrs. Allen and her daughter, Patricia Carlson, are constant senders of packages to the troops in Vietnam.

"We send cookies, candy, and lots of paperback books to the troops," added Mrs. Allen. "My daughter has received many letters of thanks from the troops over there."

Mrs. Carlson is aided in her projects by her two sons.

"It was also brought to my attention, that if you send the packages to Vietnam in care of Uncle Sam you get a reduced rate," stated Mrs. Allen.

Mrs. Allen's son, Jimmy, a student at Mt. Miguel High in Spring Valley, is also a frequent sender of gifts to the troops in the Southeast Asian country.

Scout District to Install Fillpot at Dinner Tonight

Wayne Fillpot of La Mesa will be installed as Grossmont District chairman, San Diego Council of the Boy Scouts of America, at a banquet in the El Cajon Elks Lodge tonight.

Fillpot succeeds Ray Stoyer, general manager of the San Diego County Water District. Fillpot, a vice president at Southern California First National Bank, will head the almost 6,000-member Grossmont District, which ranges south from Miramar road to the U.S. Mexico border and east from 68th street to the Imperial County line.

This district is the largest in number of scouts in the entire San Diego Council. It includes the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area.

Fillpot came up through the scouting program, including cub scouts and boy scouts. He has served the past year as vice chairman of the district.

He and his wife, Mary, and their two children reside at 4784 Jackson dr., La Mesa. Fillpot's son, Randy, 12, is a Boy Scout and his daughter, Nancy, 10, is a junior Girl Scout.

The Pot Luck affair scheduled to start at 6:30 p.m. will include an election of District Officers for 1968. Highlight of the program will be the presentation of the Award of Merit to four Volunteer Scouters. The award is given annually to leaders with records of exceptional service to boyhood.

The Dinner is open to all scout leaders, parents and persons interested in the scouting program.

Local Teenagers Project Gives Gifts To Fighters

Everybody is concerned about our Vietnam fighting boys — but some Mt. Miguel sophomores are showing how much they care.

The girls, who live in Lemon Grove, are Stephanie Dean, 2335 Debo dr., Chris Meza, 8085 Palm st., and Carole Rhaknecht, 3484 Sweetwater rd.

It started when Stephanie saw a picture story of American fighters in a recent issue of LIFE Magazine about the same time her mother was studying a mail-order cheese gift catalog.

She ordered two five pound packages of cheese to be delivered to two soldiers in Vietnam. One was addressed to a specific fighter at Con Thien; the other was addressed "To a soldier at the front line."

The experience was heartwarming and the gifts were real morale-boosters to the recipients and the buddies they shared them with.

Stephanie enlisted the aid of Chris and Carole. Carole had a girl friend whose father had just returned from Vietnam after six months of work. He heartily approved the project. Chris's boy friend had been hit on the head with a grenade that failed to explode. He, too, was enthusiastic about aid and comfort such gifts provide.

The girls collected pop bottles and sold them for 1.40. They told school chums about the project and encouraged them to make cash contributions. Collecting 5 cents to $1 from those at school and neighbors, they amassed $12 with which they bought ingredients to make fudge. As the closing date for mailing packages to Vietnam in time for Christmas closed, they delivered the fudge to boys in the Navy Hospital.

As they spread the word of appreciation through gifts to warriors overseas and injured ones in the hospitals, another idea developed.

"Many people are unable to make the trip to the hospital, but they may want to send a personal gift to some boy. We will act as messengers — or shoppers. And report to the donor what the reaction is to the gift," Stephanie said.

"If the donor has no preference for the gift, money that is supplied will be converted into a gift and a receipt and a report will go to the donor as soon as the gift is delivered," Carole said.

"These gifts symbolize our support," said Chris. "With kooks tearing up draft cards and defiling the flag, we think our project is a good counter-balance. It is proof that somebody cares."

Gifts may be given through the girls by contacting the counseling office at Mt. Miguel, or by calling the office of this newspaper and leaving your name and telephone number.

In either event you may arrange for a gift of your choice to be delivered to a brave fighting man during the holiday season.

The girls said they intend to continue the project after the holiday season ends.

Grossmont District Bands Vie For Honors in Aztec Bowl Sat.

The 9th Annual Autumn Band Jamboree, presented by the Bands and Specialty Corps of the Grossmont Union High School District, will be held Saturday, at 7:15 p.m., in Aztec Bowl at San Diego State College.

Participating in this annual spectacular pageant will be almost 2,000 musicians and students. March on will be at 7:15 p.m. opening with Helix High School Band, followed by Monte Vista, Santana, Grossmont, Mt. Miguel, Granite Hills, El Capitan and El Cajon. The combined bands will play the National Anthem led by Mr. Richard Robinette, band director from El Cajon.

Each band will present a "half-time" show in the following order: Grossmont, Wonderful World of Walt Disney; El Cajon, Transportation Show; Santana, Three Little Pigs; Mt. Miguel, Spanish Show; El Capitan, Summer Vacation; Monte Vista, Jazz Show; Helix, Tijuana Brass, and Granite Hills, Precision Drill.

The annual Band Jamboree is the culmination of a year's work by the Grossmont District Instrumental Music Coordinating Council. The Council is an outgrowth of the enthusiastic Parents' Clubs that are behind each of the eight high school bands.

Cornet Manager Dies Friday

Services were held yesterday at Conrad-Lemon Grove Mortuary for Fred B. Locke, 55, of 3595 Olive, Lemon Grove. The former manager of the Cornet store on Broadway ave., died Friday night. He was always punctual for work, reported Patricia Wentworth, a store employee. When he failed to show up Saturday morning she went to his home. She called the sheriff's office when no one answered at Locke's home.

Sheriff's men cut the screen in a door to gain entrance and found Locke dead in bed. A resident of the San Diego area for 20 years, Locke was born in Mississippi. He was in the Army during the second World War.

Interment is to be in Byhalia, Mississippi.

Fallen Valley Hero Honored

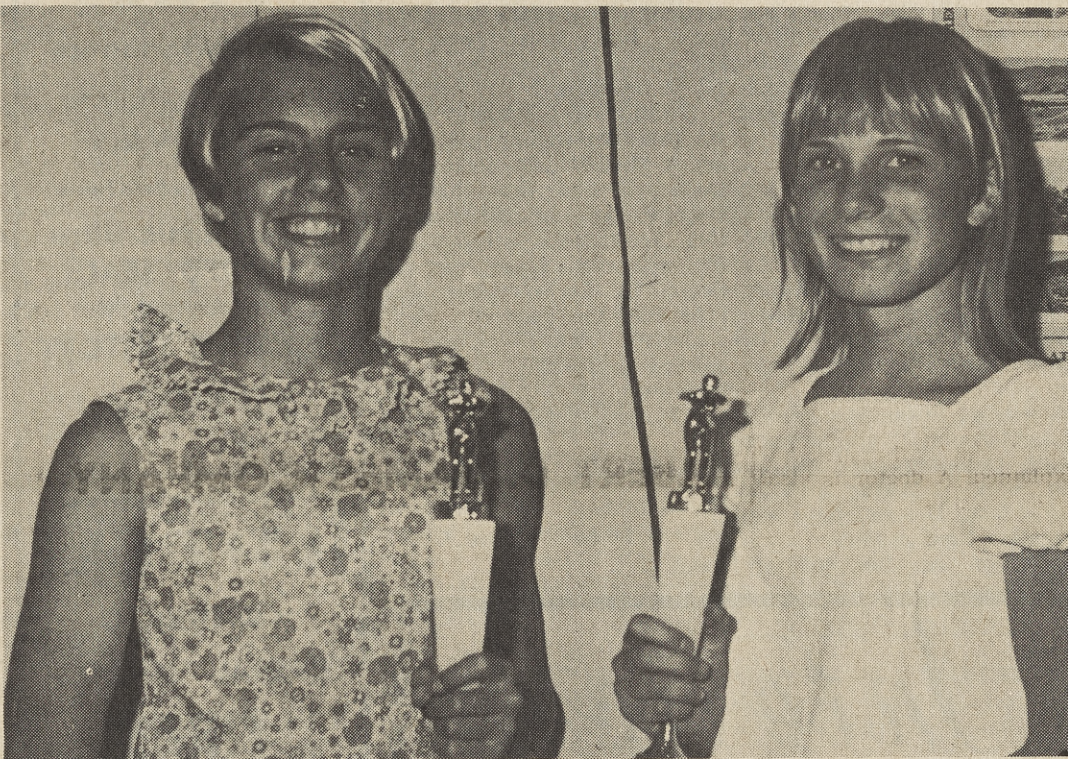

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Walls, 9709 George st., Spring Valley, whose son was killed in action in Vietnam one year ago Nov. 5, have received word from Washington that Cpl. Terry L. Walls has been posthumously awarded the Military Merit Medal and the Gallantry Cross with Palm by the South Vietnamese government.

Cpl. Walls had previously been awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star with "V" for valor.

Cpl. Walls distinguished himself by heroic actions on Nov. 5, 1966, while evacuating injured soldiers from the field of battle. Although the enemy fire was intense, Cpl. Walls continued his actions until he was killed by machine gun fire.

His outstanding display of aggressiveness, devotion to duty and unimpeachable valor in the face of the enemy saved many lives, and reflects great credit upon himself, his unit, the 25th Infantry Division and the United States Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Walls have two daughters, Dolores and Vicki.

HIGH POINTERS — Lesley Carlson and Lisa Goodwin display high point, age-group trophies, awarded to them recently by the La Mesa Swim Team Association. The girls each got the most points in their age group during the 1967 swimming season. Lesley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reg Carlson, of 2110 Dayton st., racked up the most swimming competition points in girls' 11-12 age group. Lisa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Goodwin, of 8504 Palm st., registered more points than any other girl swimmer in the 13-14 year age group.

Lemon Vandalism Cleaned by Pair

Vandals splashed a gallon of black paint on the lemon in the Lemon Grove plaza Halloween night, it was reported by L.G. Constable Hal Johnston. He gave chase to some teenager youngsters but they evaded him.

Eliza Troxel, working in her hardware store across the street at 10 p.m. saw, the incident. She and her husband used the store's stepladders and paint thinner and removed the paint — working until 4 a.m. to do it.

The lemon had been repainted by Bob Russell and some of his helpers just a few weeks before.

Sutton Running Leaves Highlanders Stranded in Second Place

Grossmont's incomparable Dennis Sutton personally styled any hopes Helix may of had of repeating as Grossmont League champions, as the high-stepping tailback led his Foothiller teammates to a rugged 13-6 triumph last Friday night at Aztec Bowl.

In a game which matched a pair of unbeaten circuit records, Grossmont's rugged defense and a Sutton-dominated offense proved too much for a Highlander team which put together a game that probably would have beaten anyone else.

The victory gave Grossmont undisputed possession of the top spot in the county circuit, while the loss dropped the Highlanders into second place behind the leaders with two to go. Helix will have to hope that league-counterparts Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista can derail the fast-moving Foothiller victory train in the last two games of the season. If not, Sutton and his teammates gain sweet revenge for a championship they lost by one point to the Helix squad last year.

It was apparent from the beginning that it was to be Sutton's evening. The 178-pounder dominates the Grossmont offense, and quarterback Russ Proctor immediately showed his game plan by running Sutton on every play of Grossmont's first touchdown drive midway in the first period.

Before Sutton could get rolling, the Foothillers had to turn back an opening-kickoff Helix drive that took the Highlanders from their own 36 to the Grossmont 19, before two-third-and-long yardage passes by Helix signal-caller Greg Gleason failed to produce any results. Split end Mike Vidal was the intended receiver on both unsuccessful aeriels.

South Bay Rally Shades Miller-Paced Los Toros

Los Toros Pop Warner football Midgets fell prey to a spirited second-half rally by the South Bay Roadrunners last Saturday, losing both the game, 19-18, and a chance to play in the Mother Goose Classic on Thanksgiving in El Cajon.

Paced by the offensive heroics of quarterback Tim Miller, the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley team left the field at halftime with a seemingly comfortable, 18-0 lead.

Miller scored two of the first three Los Toros Midget touchdowns, his first one coming on an 85-yard kickoff return which put the locals out in front, 6-0.

Paced by the fine play calling of Miller, the Los Toros offense dominated the first half. The second touchdown for the talented young athlete capped a long drive by the local youth football team. Miller plunged over right tackle on the keeper from two-yards out for the score.

Leading 12-0 at the end of the first quarter, Jim Reese added another six-pointer to the increasing Los Toros total, as the speedy halfback knifed his way up the middle for a six-yard touchdown run.

But quarterback John Anderson, halfback Mark Sablan, and end Mike Nelson were not to be denied the entire game, as the running of Sablan and Anderson, and the passing of Anderson and Sablan to Nelson paced the Roadrunners to the come-from-behind victory.

Trailing 18-6 late in the third period, the South Bay team came up with the most important play of the youth football contest. Anderson began to circle right end, but stopped and tossed an aerial in the direction of Nelson. The fast-moving opposing end caught the ball in stride, eluded a pair of desperation tackles along the sidelines, and sped 90 yards down the right side of the field for the second South Bay touchdown.

The point which proved to be the deciding factor in the evenly-matched contest came on the extra point try, as Anderson sent all of his players moving to the left, but he turned around and lofted a pass to Nelson who was all alone in the right corner of the Los Toros endzone.

Sablan put the winning touchdown on the board for South Bay midway through the final stanza on a 20-yard run.

Los Toros will also be in action again before the season comes to a close. The local Midgets travel to Phoenix, Arizona, to tackle the Arizona state champs on Dec. 12.

Matadors Rout Braves; Could Play Spoiler Role

Quarterback Mike Tyer capped long second-quarter drives with touchdown passes to lead Mt. Miguel to a 13-6 victory over El Cajon last Friday on the Matadors' gridiron.

Tyer, taking over for regular quarterback Jerry Lowery, fired scoring strikes to Ross Ellis and Bruce Johnson for the two Matador scores. The six-pointer to Ellis covered 14 yards, capping an 82-yard drive by the Mt. Miguel offense. Tyer and Johnson connected on a 15-yard pass. The second touchdown followed a 65-yard drive by the locals.

Johnson and Tyer teamed up on the key play in the first Matador drive. Tyer hit his end on a 32-yard aerial to spark the second-quarter rally.

Art McRoberts rammed across El Cajon's lone tally in the third stanza, with the Brave fullback bowling over from the one-yard line.

The victory pushed Mt. Miguel over the 500 mark in Grossmont League play. The Matadors now own a 3-2 circuit mark, tying them with El Capitan for third place in the league. The Matadors get a chance to play the role of the spoiler tomorrow night at home as they attempt to derail the victory machine of league-leading Grossmont.

The Grossmont offense, sparked by the spectacular running of tailback Dennis Sutton, leading scorer and ground-gainer in San Diego County, will present the Matador defense with its sternest test of the season.

Mt. Miguel's defense did a good job of contained El Cajon, and will again be the key if the Matadors are to stay above the 500 mark for the year.

Coach Ben Cipranic will also have to devise an offense to move the ball against Grossmont's rugged defense, which leads the league in limiting the opposition in scoring and gained yardage.

Lions Club Tournament Tops Week at Golden Bowl Lanes

Activities at Golden Bowl bowling lanes was highlighted by the Lions Clubs Annual Helix Zone Chairmen Handicap Bowling Tournament. Held on Saturday the tournament took in clubs from Spring Valley, Lemon Grove, La Mesa and College Center. The event was also open to the ladies of the Lions.

The La Mesa club did a washout job by taking all the men's events. In the team event, with four bowlers, comprised of Don Fach, Jack Hardbeck, Ray Olson and Bill Sunderman, they had a total of 2330 pins.

In the men's doubles, with Ray Olson and Bill Sunderman, they chalked up a total of 1216 pins.

The men's singles, was won by Bill Soldmann, with 650 pins.

The men's all events, was won by Don Fach, with 1837 pins.

In the women's events, the Spring Valley Lionesses made a good showing. The team event was won by Valleyites Ceil Brown, Kay Vanice, Marie Clark and Millie Owens, for a total of 2089 pins.

The women's doubles, was won by College Center, with Genny Dewalt and Dot Arrington leading 1724 pins to her credit.

Valley Trio: Streamliners in first, with 14 wins, 2 losses; Here-Tiz in second, with 12 wins, 4 losses; and in third, Team No. 7, with 11 wins, 5 losses.

Mixed Sports: Claim Jumpers in first, with 22 wins, 6 losses; Sauer's Egg Ranch in second, with 19 wins, 9 losses; and in third, Hi Flyers, with 18 wins, 9 losses.

Trailblazers: Paso Fino's in first, with 25 wins, 7 losses; Hydo Ind. in second, with 20 wins, 12 losses; and in third, Late Starters, with 18 wins, 13 losses, only a half game ahead of a three-way tie.

Downing Boot Short In Monte Vista Tie

Monte Vista's struggling Maughn Kent for the Monarchs came the closest archs first touchdown. The six-pointer evened the game 7-7 at halftime.

Trailing 13-7 midway into the final period, Downing capped a Monte Vista drive with another scoring toss, this one four yards to end Bill Worden. But Downing's attempt for the go-ahead point was deflected by the on-rushing Sultans and the boot fell short.

Monte Vista's chances of gaining a league victory tomorrow night will be slim, as the Monarchs run up against one-point loser to second-place Helix, and a two-touchdown loser to league kingpin, Grossmont.

Soc. Security Brief

Local Residents Don't Realize They May Qualify for Insurance

According to Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager, many area residents are not aware that they may qualify for cash monthly disability insurance benefits as a result of changes made in the law.

Under the old law, a person could become eligible only if he was disabled for a long and indefinite period. Now a person can qualify if his mental or physical impairment prevents him from doing any substantial gainful work and this impairment has already lasted or is expected to last for at least 12 months.

Not like retirement benefits and medicare, disability benefits can be paid to persons at any age under 65 if they have worked long enough under social security to be insured. Generally he is insured if he has credit for five years of work during the 10-year period before he becomes disabled.

For more detailed information about disability insurance benefits Oto urges interested persons to contact, without delay, the El Cajon Social Security Office at 1075 E. Main st., in El Cajon.
